

Louisiana State University
Graduate Student Symposium
STUDENT TRAVEL AWARD

Applications due February 22nd, 2019

<https://lsugsspc.weebly.com/>

Award Information

The purpose of this $300 travel award is to provide financial assistance for those undergraduate students attending and presenting at the upcoming Spring 2019 ACS National Meeting in Orlando, Florida. Women and underrepresented minorities in chemistry who are presenting at the meeting are strongly encouraged to apply. The award can be applied towards travel, registration, and lodging costs and it will be paid through reimbursement. Recipients of this travel award are required to attend the 'Artificial Molecular Machines' workshop on Monday, April 1st, and the majority of the symposium "Artificial Molecular Machines and the Next Generation of Molecular Control" on Tuesday, April 2nd. These travel awards are made possible through funding from the LSU Provost Office.

How to Apply

To apply for the Student Travel Award, please visit <https://lsugsspc.weebly.com/> and click on 'Undergrad Travel Award' tab to access the application form. In addition to completing the application form, the following will need to be emailed as a single PDF file to lsugsspc@lsu.edu.

- 1-Page Résumé/CV
- 1-Page Personal Statement (300 words or less) detailing your expected career path and future goals and how they may relate to the theme of this symposium
- ACS Presentation Abstract (if applicable)
– OR –
- 250 word paragraph summarizing your undergraduate research

Questions?

Please visit <https://lsugsspc.weebly.com/> or feel free to email any questions to lsugsspc@lsu.edu.

LSU GSSPC

@LSUGSSPC

lsugsspc@lsu.edu