ASSISTANT PROFESSOR (TEACHING)

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

The Department of Chemistry at Wayne State University (https://clas.wayne.edu/chemistry) is hiring a full-time Assistant Professor (Teaching; non-tenure track) to begin in Fall 2023. Primary duties for this position will include teaching undergraduate-level organic and general chemistry courses (lectures and laboratories). Additional responsibilities include assistance in curriculum development, advising undergraduate chemistry majors, assistance with the Chemistry Learning Center, and/or serving on departmental committees. A Ph.D. in chemistry or a related field is required.

Wayne State University is a premier, public, urban research university located in the heart of Detroit where students from all backgrounds are offered a rich, high quality education. Our deep-rooted commitment to excellence, collaboration, integrity, diversity, and inclusion creates exceptional educational opportunities preparing students for success in a diverse, global society. Wayne State University is committed to increasing diversity in all forms and promoting an inclusive environment. WSU encourages applications from women, people of color, and individuals from other underrepresented groups. WSU is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

Please submit your application materials merged into a single pdf using the instructions in the following website: https://clas.wayne.edu/chemistry/news/faculty-position-assistant-professor-teaching-non-tenure-track-45374. Candidates should submit: a) cover letter of interest, b) curriculum vitae, c) teaching philosophy, d) diversity statement, and e) de-identified answers to four questions provided in the instructions webpage (https://clas.wayne.edu/chemistry/news/faculty-position-assistant-professor-teaching-non-tenure-track-45374). In addition, please arrange for three letters of recommendation to be submitted on your behalf to facultysearch@chem.wayne.edu. Review of applications will begin on October 15, 2022, and continue until the position is filled.